I am Dining for Women, Hear me ROAR*

I am a mother, father, grandmother, grandfather, wife, husband, partner, spouse, aunt, uncle, daughter, son, BFF

I am a she, he, and they

I am from the global north, I am from the global south, I am straight, I am queer, with skin colors in every hue

I am employed, unemployed, underemployed, retired, volunteer, student, scholar

I am a farmer and livestock owner, an educator, a professional, a small business entrepreneur

I am a landowner, landless, I am a nomad

I am a community health worker, a doctor, a nurse, a pharmacist

I am on the frontlines, a firefighter, an EMT, the law, and a service provider

I need water, food security, and a roof over my head

I need family and community

I want equal opportunity, I want fairness, I want equal access

I want an education, I want healthcare, I want a future

I want music, dance, and opportunities to create

I want Mother Earth to sing with joy, with her abundant flora and fauna

I want justice, I want equality, I want peace

I want good governance, responsibility, and accountability

I will give of my time, my compassion, and my resources

I will give of my talent and hard work

I will speak, I will speak up

I will communicate, discuss, and share

I will join the other chorus of voices

I will never stop trying

I am willing to go where others have not gone before

I am Dining for Women, Hear me ROAR

Leadership Message

In recent years, Dining for Women (DFW) has put in place programs and systems that would allow us to grow our membership in order to expand our impact on global gender equality. 2019 was the year that these efforts bore fruit.

Thanks to the work of our volunteer leaders and staff, we welcomed many new DFW chapters across the U.S. We ended 2019 just shy of 500 chapters, but quickly surpassed this historic milestone early in 2020.

With increased funds resulting from new chapters and more monthly recurring donors, we expanded our Sustained Grants from nine to 12 and increased grant size from $60,000 to $75,000. Our Sustained Grants allow us to really partner with our grantees, creating deeper connections and greater impact.

We are continually enhancing our member education and opportunities with news ways for our members to engage with our mission and each other. In 2019, we expanded the educational resources on our Sustained Grants; our travel program flourished with members visiting grantees in Kenya, Bhutan, and Peru (see p. 17); and our Advocacy Committee explored a partnership with RESULTS, a non-profit organization with 40 years of experience advocating to end poverty around the world (see p. 19).

A number of initiatives raised DFW’s profile within the global gender equality arena, including our collaborative International Women’s Day event (see p. 9), and our participation in the UN Commission on the Status of Women and the UNICEF USA Annual Summit. We fulfilled a long-held goal to send representatives to Women Deliver, the world’s largest conference on gender equality with more than 8,000 advocates from 165 countries (see p. 6).

All of this has positioned us well for the next chapter of DFW. 2019 was a year of consultation, collaboration, and planning as our board developed a new, multi-year strategic plan based on input we received from members, donors, volunteer leaders, grantees, and others.

As we planned for the future in 2019, we could not have anticipated how our world would be turned upside down in early 2020 by the COVID-19 pandemic. Throughout 2020, we have watched in horror as the number of cases and deaths rose around the world, and we moved quickly to transition our organization to this new environment – moving to virtual chapter meetings and giving our grantees flexibility to address their most urgent needs.

In any crisis, women and girls are impacted the most. COVID-19 is jeopardizing the limited progress made by women and girls globally and may reverse many gains in gender equality (see p. 5).

The circumstances of 2020 make DFW’s community building and grant making more valuable with each passing day! Many challenges remain, but we are confident that our board, staff, volunteers, and members will continue to rise to the situation and ensure that safety and equality for women and girls are treated as the vital concern that they are.
Global Gender Equality: Where Do We Stand?

Global gender equality is Dining for Women’s guiding star. We champion gender equality because women’s rights are human rights. We believe that every person deserves the same opportunities to thrive, regardless of gender, race, wealth, or where they happen to be born. When women and girls are treated equally, the world is healthier, safer, more peaceful, inclusive, and economically just for everyone.

Yet, all over the world, inequality, oppression, and exploitation continue to hold women back. And we know that oppression of women and girls is bound with other types of injustice based on race, class, and ethnicity. Across the global south, millions of Black and Brown women live in extreme poverty and without access to personal freedoms or opportunities to reach their full potential. Research released in 2019 highlighted these challenges, as outlined below.

This is a sobering statement. It was also one of the headlines in late 2019 when the World Economic Forum released its latest Global Gender Gap Report. According to the report, it will take 99.5 years — more than a lifetime — for women and men to reach parity across health, education, work, and politics.

The 2019 SDG Gender Index, released by Equal Measures 2030, finds that nearly 40% of the world’s women and girls — 1.4 billion – live in countries “failing on gender equality.” Another 1.4 billion live in countries that “barely pass.” Even the countries that scored the highest have “more to do,” especially in areas such as gender-based violence, gender pay gaps, and climate change.

According to the report, gender inequality is compounded by other factors. Girls and women around the world, especially millions of Black and Brown women, experience additional disadvantages on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, age, income, geographic location, sexual orientation and gender identity, and disability.

Yet another 2019 report—The Gender Snapshot 2019—finds that:

1. More women than men live in extreme poverty, especially during their peak childbearing years.
   - 15 million girls of primary-school age will likely never learn to read and write, compared to about 10 million boys.
   - 1 in 3 girls aged 15 to 19 have been subjected to female genital mutilation/cutting (FGM/C) in the 30 countries where the practice is concentrated.

2. Unequal power relations in households make women more vulnerable than men to food insecurity.

3. 38.7% of employed women work in agriculture, forestry, and fisheries, but only 13.8% of landholders are women.

4. 15M
   - Nearly 300,000 women died from complications related to pregnancy and childbirth in 2017.

5. 1 in 4
   - Worldwide, only 1 in 4 parliamentary seats are held by women.

This report further states that “While some indicators of gender equality are showing progress, such as the significant decline in the prevalence of FGM and early marriage, the numbers overall continue to be alarming.”

Despite the fact that a gender equal world is healthier, wealthier, more prosperous, and more peaceful, we still have a long way to go!

That is why global gender equality is DFW’s guiding star.
The Impact of COVID-19

It’s been called the “perfect storm” of risk factors for women, and the “shadow pandemic.” With the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic in early 2020, even the limited progress made towards gender equality is now at risk of being rolled back.

“Across every sphere, from health to the economy, security to social protection, the impacts of COVID-19 are exacerbated for women and girls simply by virtue of their sex.”

Women are the first to feel the impact of food insecurity.

Women are more likely to be employed in informal activities, such as market selling, which are disrupted in a crisis, leading to loss of income and increased poverty.

Women and girls have increased caregiving responsibilities which exposes them to greater health risks.

Women and girls are at an increased risk of gender-based violence and will have less access to services and support.

Women’s access to safe family planning services is likely to worsen, with global contraceptive supply shortages.

DFW on the World Stage

8,000 Gender Equality Advocates

The Women Deliver 2019 Conference was one step on the march towards a more gender equal world, and Dining for Women was proud to be a part of it. More than 8,000 people – including heads of states, ministers, parliamentarians, academics, advocates, activists and journalists – attended from over 165 countries, making this the largest conference on gender equality and the health, rights and well-being of girls and women. More than 100,000 people also participated virtually.

DFW co-founder Barb Collins, staff members Wendy Frattolin and Justine Allen, and volunteer Regional Leaders Karen McCune (Northwest Region), Pat Payne (West Region), and Colleen Kill (West Region) attended on behalf of DFW.

“I came away proud of the grassroots, community-based work we are doing at Dining for Women and more committed than ever to our mission and vision.”

“This conference brought home to me how each of us needs to use her individual power to effect change for women and girls in our community, within our country, and around the world.”

“When women’s organizations find common ground in the fight for gender equality and join hands, the community of women becomes more powerful and effective as change-makers.”

— KAREN MCCUNE

— COLLEEN KILL

— PAT PAYNE

Together, we are powerful.

Even after the pandemic has been contained, women and girls will be impacted for years to come.

Now, more than ever, women and girls need our support.

Dining for Women’s work is more important than ever!

UN Commission on the Status of Women

DFW was once again well-represented at the UN Commission on the Status of Women (CSW63) – the world’s principal intergovernmental body dedicated to the promotion of gender equality and the empowerment of women. We co-hosted a panel discussion with UNICEF USA and several DFW grantees, and participated in another panel sponsored by UNICEF USA and Zonta International.
What Our Members Say About DFW

Dining for Women has a strong culture of collaboration, and we value the input of all our members and donors. In 2019, we conducted a membership survey to gather information that will be valuable to us in implementing our next strategic plan. Findings will help us develop programming and initiatives in line with our members’ interests and needs, and will provide important demographic information on our membership. Increasing diversity in our membership is important to DFW and will be a key focus area moving forward. Our 2019 member survey will provide us with a baseline for measuring our progress over time.

Thank you to the 2,518 members who completed the survey—a response rate of more than 20%. The following are some of the key findings.

Members enjoy the community they gain in their chapters. Connectedness keeps them involved.

81% of members rank “personal connections with my chapter” as an “important” or “extremely important” factor in deciding to join or get more involved in DFW. Nearly 80% of members said that DFW “made me feel part of a community of caring people.”

Members are proud and confident of the organization’s impact.

96% of members are “satisfied” or “very satisfied” that DFW’s grantees are professionally screened and vetted and provide a high level of impact.

“I appreciate the incredible amount of due diligence that goes into selecting quality grantees. It’s not just some organization in the US going into Ghana telling them what to do. It’s all local-led.”

Members believe that DFW’s collective action is powerful.

More than 98% of respondents said that “harnessing our collective power to create a better and more just world” was “extremely important” or “important” to their involvement in DFW.

“I think one thing that makes it really special is...being a part of something bigger than yourself. I think Dining for Women provides a lot that I think is just hard to find.”

DFW provides an easy, approachable way to make a difference in the world.

For the amount of impact and satisfaction members get, DFW’s low barrier to entry (i.e. no minimum donation required) is especially valued.

“What I value most is the community of women who are interested in helping others and learning about and impacting the global community in a positive way. I would say it’s the thing that keeps me coming back.”

Women as Agents of Change

2019 International Women's Day

Women around the world are creating change in political, economic, social, and cultural arenas today. This was the inspiration for our 2019 International Women's Day (IWD) event, entitled “Women as Agents of Change”.

Dining for Women partnered with Peace is Loud, The Association of Junior Leagues International, and Georgia Public Broadcasting (GPB) for a panel discussion and film screening.

Our three panelists were excellent examples of women creating change: Abigail Disney, filmmaker, philanthropist, activist, and co-creator of the PBS series Women, War & Peace; Razia Jan, award-winning humanitarian and founder of DFW grantee Razia’s Ray of Hope in Afghanistan; and Elvia Raquec, Program Director for Women’s Justice Initiative, a DFW grantee that is fueling social change in Guatemala.

The panel discussion was broadcast live to hundreds of DFW chapters and Junior Leagues across the country, as well as Peace is Loud and GPB supporters. Some DFW chapters also held their own local events to commemorate IWD.

Watch our “Women as Agents of Change” panel discussion by clicking here: [VIEW DISCUSSION]

New Partnership Launched

Attendees at our Atlanta IWD event were treated to a screening of A Journey Of A Thousand Miles: Peacekeepers, one of the films that is part of the documentary series, Women, War & Peace II. We also launched a new collaborative partnership with Peace is Loud that allows for ongoing education and discussion about women as agents of change, especially in the area of peacebuilding. This partnership provides DFW chapters with the opportunity to hold public, educational screenings of the documentary series Women, War & Peace II, produced by Abigail Disney. Women, War & Peace II demonstrates how some of the biggest international stories of recent memory are shaped by women. An all-female cast of directors present four never-before-told stories about women who risked their lives for peace, changing history in the process.
2019 Grants

Dining for Women awards 12 Featured Grants per year that range in amounts from $35,000 to $50,000. These projects are featured in educational materials and at monthly chapter meetings across the country.

Venture Strategies for Health and Development

NIGER • $49,999

Creates safe space clubs to improve education outcomes, delay marriage and childbearing, and transform the lives of vulnerable, isolated adolescent girls in rural Niger.

Maji Safi Group

TANZANIA • $49,995

Keeps adolescent girls in school and encourages leadership and self-esteem, while also reducing the cultural stigma around menstrual hygiene and providing sustainable menstrual cups.

Her Future Coalition

INDIA • $49,200

Expands and supports three Red Light Area Resource Centers in Calcutta, where survivors of human trafficking and gender-based violence gain access to job training, employment, counseling, and informal education.

MindLeaps

MAURITANIA • $47,840

Draws girls off the streets and away from risks such as prostitution by offering dance workshops, remedial education, psychosocial counseling, and nutritional support.

Razia’s Ray of Hope

AFGHANISTAN • $41,040

Trains midwives in order to increase women’s access to maternal, prenatal, and neonatal healthcare services, resulting in better maternal and infant health outcomes.

Kakenya’s Dream

KENYA • $45,000

Empowers young Maasai girls, who are at risk for female genital mutilation/cutting (FGM/C) and early marriage, to stay in school and learn about sexual and reproductive health, child rights, and life and leadership skills.

Iqra Fund

PAKISTAN • $42,398

Establishes a girls’ middle school program in Pakistan’s isolated Basha Valley by funding teachers, providing uniforms, books and supplies for the girls, and engaging the mothers in leadership workshops.

Brick by Brick Partners

UGANDA • $50,000

Provides free transportation for laboring women to access health facilities and emergency obstetric care, thus reducing major obstetric complications and leading to better health outcomes for mothers and babies.

Street Child US

NEPAL • $49,180

Helps adolescent girls in remote areas to achieve functional literacy and numeracy, make sustainable transitions into meaningful employment, and develop confidence and awareness of their rights in order to reduce prejudice and sexual violence.

Young Heroes Foundation

SWAZILAND • $45,000

Alleviates poverty by teaching female caregivers (often grandmothers) of orphans and vulnerable children to become financially literate, and by creating the opportunity for them to become micro entrepreneurs so they can support themselves and their families.

Jacaranda Health

KENYA • $47,650

Provides access to computers and critical information technology skills for girls so they are prepared for today’s technology-driven job market.

Edu-GIRLS

INDIA • $37,650

Creates Kenya’s first Nurse Mentor Training Center which allows top nurses from Kenya’s public hospitals to mentor hundreds of peer nurses and sustainably improve maternal outcomes for mothers and babies.
Sustained Grants 2019–2021

Through our Sustained Grants, DFW makes a larger, longer-term commitment to a previous Featured Grantee, resulting in a deeper impact for both the organization and the women and girls we support. In 2019, we increased the number of Sustained Grantees we funded from nine to 12, and also increased each grant from $60,000 to $75,000 over three years.

Mapping the DFW 2019–2021 Sustained Grants
Around 60 babies a day are taking their first breath in appalling conditions, away from home, to mothers who have survived displacement, violence, trauma and, at times, rape. This is far from the best start in life.

Our partnership contributes to improving the health care and long-term well-being of approximately 72,500 pregnant and lactating women who have arrived at the refugee camps, and more than 700,000 children needing humanitarian assistance.

As part of our partnership with UNICEF USA, DFW has previously funded projects for Syrian refugee women in Jordan and for internally displaced women in South Sudan.

Who are the Rohingya?

- A mostly-Muslim ethnic group.
- Lived for centuries in the majority Buddhist Myanmar.
- One of the most persecuted minorities.
- Denied citizenship by the Myanmar government.
- Since August 2017, more than 700,000 Rohingya have fled to Bangladesh to escape unspeakable violence in Myanmar.

UNICEF Youth Summit

DFW sent a youth delegation to the UNICEF Student Summit in Washington, DC. Representing DFW were Réka Blakemore, leader of a DFW high school chapter in Indiana; Delaney Fleming, leader of the DFW chapter at Furman University; Amelia Miles, Furman student and a DFW intern; and Sam Albury, middle school student. The group led a workshop, and several of the students visited Congress and their local representatives.

Impact of 2019 Grants & Partnerships

Through our Featured Grants and our UNICEF Partnership, we directly impacted 23,550 women and girls and indirectly impacted 425,333 family and community members.

UNICEF Partnership

Since 2017, Dining for Women has partnered with UNICEF USA to provide urgent support to refugee women and girls around the world.

In 2019, we embarked on a new, $100,000 project to improve the maternal and newborn health of Rohingya refugees in Cox’s Bazaar, Bangladesh. The project will help strengthen referral systems to improve access to health centers and district hospitals for pregnant Rohingya women and babies. It will also help improve the quality of newborn care and safe delivery practices at 19 primary and three secondary care facilities. In addition, this project will prevent potential disease outbreaks in Cox’s Bazaar by improving cold chain management systems to keep vaccines at the proper temperature throughout their transit.

Impact of 2019 Grants & Partnerships

Over the three-year period of these grants, we will directly impact 64,314 women and girls and indirectly impact 177,358 family and community members.

Multi-Year Impact of our 2019-2021 Sustained Grants

- 13,490 girls used the confidence, knowledge, and leadership skills they gained during sexual and reproductive health workshops to break down barriers to girls’ education in their communities.
- 6,281 pregnant women benefited from a community-wide effort to streamline transportation and access to timely and quality care designed to enhance maternal outcomes.
- 2,640 women and girls at risk for gender-based violence (GBV) in South Sudan benefited from therapeutic services, awareness campaigns, and GBV mitigation efforts.
- 887 young, marginalized girls broke through barriers of culture, seclusion, caste, and gender and found refuge in safe spaces where they were mentored, offered training, and dreamed of brighter futures.
- 795 mothers and grandmothers received vocational training to enhance their economic independence to better care for their vulnerable children and grandchildren.
- 350 medical professionals were trained to be better midwives and nurses to serve their communities in improving maternal child health.
- 307 young girls in hard-to-reach communities overcame barriers of class, gender, and geographical isolation to pursue their dreams of a holistic education with vocational and technical training.
- 120 at-risk girls leaped forward using dance to enhance their cognitive skills, social-emotional learning, and preparation for formal schooling.

Member Travel Program

As part of Dining for Women’s commitment to learning, we offer several trips each year in order to deepen members’ understanding of the issues facing women and girls globally.

The trips give members the opportunity to connect face-to-face with the work of our grantees and the women and girls impacted, while also building a special community amongst travelers. In 2019, Dining for Women travelers visited Kenya, Bhutan, and Peru.

Kenya

Our DFW travelers forged powerful connections with the inspiring work of several of our Kenyan grantees: Shining Hope for Communities (SHOFCO), RefuSHE, Kenya Self-Help Project, and Wiser International. They left this adventure with a deeper understanding and appreciation of this fabulously intricate and enchanting country and the women and girls who inhabit it. Their journey was topped off with two days on safari, enjoying the endless plains and wildlife of the Mara.

Many of our Kenya travelers stayed connected with the grantees they visited. Several became local “aunts” for SHOFCO students who are attending boarding school in the U.S. Others provided much-needed improvements and supplies for a classroom used by Kenya Self-Help.

KENYA TRAVELER

Elevate Destinations specializes in designing and implementing travel programs for nonprofit organizations while empowering and respecting the local destinations. They are a leader in the field of sustainable travel, and their trips include the most responsible travel guidelines available, including proactive conservation, lodging with a purpose, carbon offsetting, and prevention of human trafficking and human rights abuses.

“More than anything, I felt the warm welcome of the Kenyan people, with a smile that came from the heart and was seen in the eyes.”

KENYA TRAVELER

Bhutan

Our Bhutan program was so popular with DFW travelers that we filled two separate trips! Each journey offered a holistic view of the cultural and traditional evolution of women’s roles at home and in public spaces. Travelers explored how these roles have changed due to modernization and democracy in relation to the country’s guiding philosophy of Gross National Happiness (GNH). They experienced the beauty of Bhutan and saw firsthand the work being done at multiple READ Bhutan centers — DFW’s first grantees in Bhutan.

“The sights, the sounds (even the barking), the smells and generosity of the Bhutanese people will be imprinted on my mind forever.”

BHUTAN TRAVELER

Peru

From Inca ruins high in the Andes Mountains to the beautiful lush fields of the Sacred Valley, Peru’s ancient stories drew our DFW travelers into this intoxicating destination. Sixteen travelers explored and learned about the ancient history of the Inca and how the past translates into modern-day life for rural women and girls in this incredibly beautiful and diverse country. Highlights included participating in service projects with DFW grantees Chicuchas Wasi School for Girls and Sacred Valley Health, as well as visiting iconic Machu Picchu.
Advocacy

Grassroots advocacy is an effective way to influence U.S. policies and funding on issues that affect millions of women and girls around the world. Through our Advocacy Program, members are empowered to deepen their engagement and multiply their impact on gender equality issues.

In 2019, in order to be the most effective and efficient with Dining for Women’s resources, our Advocacy Committee explored the possibility of partnering with other organizations who have expertise in grassroots advocacy and the issues that DFW cares about. The committee began discussions with RESULTS, a non-profit, non-partisan advocacy organization focusing on ending poverty. RESULTS is a movement of passionate, committed, everyday people, just like DFW! They have been advocating effectively for 40 years, and are leading the way in developing positive, bi-lateral relationships to effect change.

Our Advocacy Committee held a series of workshops for members in Greenville, SC, Philadelphia, PA, and San Francisco, CA. The workshops provided an overview of RESULTS, hands-on training in effective advocacy, and a facilitated discussion about how the RESULTS approach could be utilized within DFW. Based on the outcome of our response and member response to the workshops, DFW entered into a strategic partnership with RESULTS in early 2020.

With this partnership, we have established a national DFW Advocacy Chapter With RESULTS that is open to all DFW members across the country. RESULTS offers training, support, and inspiration to help DFW members become skilled advocates, and provides background information and action steps that will impact millions of women and girls.

DFW is also a member of and participates in the advocacy actions of the following:

InterAction is the largest alliance of international nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) and partners in the U.S. focused on the world’s poor and most vulnerable.

United States Global Leadership Coalition (USGLC) is a broad-based, non-partisan network of business, military, faith, and political leaders who support strategic investments in global development and diplomacy in order to build a better, safer world.
